Mikayla's Voice Tri for Inclusion is much more than a race. It is a priceless opportunity for all children and young adults and an important message for our community. Competitive and recreational athletes, first time triathletes, and those challenged with physical, intellectual, and multiple disabilities race together side-by-side as they show our entire community that we can always find a way to include everyone. Please visit www.triforinclusion.org to register, volunteer, or sponsor this event.
